

[Short title for the issue]

Problem / Opportunity Statement

[Replace the text below with your clear statement/ As further documented in Manual 34 – Section 6, a problem/opportunity statement is information, and not voted upon. It is owned by its author and may reflect the opinions(s) of its author(s).

More detailed instructions and next steps in the process available in M34, Section 6.2: Key Documents.

- The problem to be addressed, the issue to be resolved
- The situation to be improved
- And/or the opportunity to be seized
- Why it warrants consideration in the PJM stakeholder process
- Include links to education already available
- Document if the new work is to address specific technical issues and/or to address broader policy issues
- Include any outcomes that have occurred to-date as a result of the issue
- Include potential additional consequences if no action is taken