

DR Seasonal Aggregation

DRS

December 8, 2017

Seasonal aggregation through registration can be difficult to align customer capabilities and lead to large registration aggregations with less dispatch flexibility

- Aggregation on registrations becoming more important which means more administration to get summer and winter capability aligned on a registration
- Less granularity for dispatch – we dispatch at registration level
- Potential for CSP to not get credit for capability if there are any administrative issues with managing aggregate registrations.