

RPM Billing Changes for 2020/2021 DY

Market Settlements Subcommittee
February 25, 2020

Edward Rich
Sr. Analyst

- The 2020/2021 Delivery Year will begin on June 1, 2020
- First Weekly Bill of the 2020/2021 Delivery Year will be published by PJM on Tuesday, June 9, 2020
- First Weekly Bill containing RPM Deficiencies for the 2020/2021 Delivery Year will be published by PJM on Tuesday, June 23, 2020

- Seasonal Capacity Performance Resources
 - Seasonal Capacity Performance Auction Credit

- LSE Price Responsive Demand
 - LSE PRD Credit
 - PRD Deficiency Charge
 - PRD Test Failure Charge
 - PRD Event Compliance Penalty Charge

- Seasonal Capacity Performance Auction Credits will be paid to members through the Seasonal Capacity Performance Auction Credit line item.
- Charges for this market will be included in the Locational Reliability Charge line item.
- Both of these line items are part of the PJM Weekly Bill.

- LSE Price Responsive Demand credits will be paid to members through the LSE PRD Credits line item.
- Charges for this line item will be included in the Locational Reliability Charge line item.
- Deficient PRD resources will be assessed a PRD Deficiency Charge

- PRD Resources will be subject to a PRD Event Compliance Penalty Charge in the case where a Maximum Generation Emergency Event is called and a PRD Resource has a MW shortfall.
- If no Maximum Generation Emergency Event are called during the delivery year, PRD Resource that do not comply with the performance test they will be subject to a PRD Test Failure Charge

- Report changes and new report details will be released to members of the MSS mail list prior to the beginning of the 2020/2021 Delivery Year